WELCOME TO THE INN AT VILLANOVA UNIVERSITY, a unique venue less than two miles from Villanova's campus. Located in the heart of Philadelphia's beautiful Main Line, the Inn blends the historic charm of the one-hundred-year-old Montrose Mansion with the amenities of a modern hotel and conference center. A CONFERENCE CENTER THAT'S ALL BUSINESS

When the Inn at Villanova University was renovated, the conference center was completely re-thought. The result? Bright, flexible meeting spaces and well-appointed furnishings provide the comfortable setting and state-of-the-art technology necessary for productive conferences, retreats and corporate gatherings. The Inn's conference spaces can be configured for any purpose—from a midsize room that can seat 40 guests classroom-style to a ballroom that has a banquet capacity of 250. Smaller boardrooms are also available in the adjacent Montrose Mansion.

For meals and mid-day breaks, our executive chef and in-house catering department can accommodate every appetite. Whether you want a casual lunch or a formal dinner, our fresh and abundant menu options allow you to satisfy your attendees' tastes and your conference budget.

With its rich wood paneling, gracious rooms and beautifully landscaped grounds, the Montrose Mansion, adjacent to the Inn's modern hotel and conference facilities, is a memorable venue for weddings, social events and corporate celebrations.

ABOUT THE MONTROSE MANSION

The handsome stone Montrose Mansion, designed by Philadelphia architect Wilson Eyre and completed in 1914, was the home of John Barnes Townsend and his wife, the former Margaret Riley. The 36-acre property was a wedding gift from Margaret's father and overlooks the Gulph Creek valley to the north.

The Mansion's rooms feature details such as Tudor archways and paneling, molded plaster ceilings, and intricate wood carving. It is a home that is gracious and hospitable, warm and elegant, with beautiful grounds and landscaped terraces. After several changes of ownership over the years, it is the crown jewel of the Inn at Villanova University, and is a favorite venue for weddings, special celebrations and corporate events.

THE PERFECT SETTING FOR YOUR EVENT

Whether you're planning a corporate meeting or an anniversary party, the Inn at Villanova is ready to greet you and your guests. In spring and summer, the outdoor terrace and the landscaped gardens and grounds are the perfect backdrop for cocktail hour. Our expert staff and in-house catering professionals will help you realize your vision with the setting, layout and menu that are perfect for your occasion.
